The law authorizing their issue requires that they shall not be disposed of at less than their par value. It is desirable that these bonds should be sold before those authorized by the extra session of the legislature are put in market.

War Items.

Government has advertised for new locks for mail bags. Great numbers of bags used in the southern "conspiracy" have been stolen, and the keys will unlock northern bags. Hence the advertisement.

One who knows Judge Taney intimately assures the Tribune that his sympathies are strongly with the secessionists. He has been a Calhoun man since 1836.

There are two or three well marked cases of typhoid fever in the hospital at Cairo. There is great need of an experienced medical head at that point.

The Mobile Tribune suggests the importance of fishermen preserving the mullet and red snapper found in Mobile Bay, for the future use of the confederate army, and for the negroes. A famine is evidently foreseen by the rebels.

The location of the government outfit depot for the plains, Santa Fe and Salt Lake, has been changed from Kansas City, Missouri, to Leavenworth, Kansas. Kansas City subscribed one hundred thousand dollars to have the government depot located at that place, and it has been removed in consequence of the hostile feeling of the citizens.

The patriotic artists of New York City have donated their valuable paintings, to the amount of $10,000 to aid the war. Iowa has appropriated $1,200,000 for war purposes.

Capt. Plankie's company of one hundred men, Virginia volunteers, were sworn into the United States service at Wheeling on Saturday, and marched over to Camp Carlisle.

The following is a list of the officers of the 2d regiment, which is now under orders to repair to Washington:

Colonel, S. Major Con: Lieut. Colonel, H. W. Peck; Adj. Gen. J. E. McDonald; Quartermaster, H. E. Paine; Adjutant, E. M. Hunter; Aid to Col., rank of Captain, Henry Landers; Surgeon, Dr. Lewis; Mate, Dr. Russell.
Captain Elly, Janesville Volunteers.
" Colwell, LaCrosse Light Guard.
" Mansfield, Portage Light Guard.
" Bouck, Oshkosh Volunteers.
" Stevens, Citizens' Guard.
" Strong, Belle City Rifles.
" Allen, Miner's Guard.

Arms Received.—The first regiment have received their equipment of arms from the federal government, consisting of musket rifles of the Minnie patent. They have also received thirty thousand "ball cartridges."

The government of Holland is about to liberate all the slaves in their foreign colonies, but subject to ten years' service to their present masters before the law takes effect.

Enthusiastic Meeting at Indian Ford.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Indian Ford, in the town of Fulton, yesterday. Processions, with flags, came in from various sections of the country in the vicinity, and three martial bands were present. It is estimated that from 1,500 to 2,000 persons were in attendance. Dr. Isaac Howe was appointed chairman; Isaac Mills, W. T. Hall, L. H. Page, E. Miles, L. Scofield, G. Newman and T. Bowman, vice presidents; E. T. Powell, F. Scofield and J. Baker secretaries. Dr. Howe made some excellent remarks on taking the chair, and the meeting was addressed at length by H. N. Constock and H. A. Patterson of this city. The very best spirit prevailed, and this meeting may be regarded as one of the best which the present dangers of the country has convened.

DOUGLAS' PLANTATION.—The Montgomery Advertiser suggests that Senator Douglas' plantation in Mississippi should be confiscated by the Montgomery government. Let them confiscate it and our government will see to it that it will prove an expensive piece of property to the robbers who take it.

VOLUNTEER'S OUTFIT.—Adjutant Gen'l Udey has addressed the following communication to Quartermaster Gen. Tredway: "It is the direction of the Commander-in-Chief, after some consideration, that the following outfit be allowed to each soldier in the Wisconsin Active Militia: 1 cap, 1 eagle and ring, 2 flannel shirts, 2 pair of stockings, 1 wool blanket, 1 tin or rubber canteen, 1 pompon, 1 coat, 2 pair flannel drawers, 1 leather stock, 1 haversack, 1 cap cover, 1 pair trousers, 1 pair booties or shoes, 1 great coat, 1 knapsack. It is not deemed advisable to purchase at this time any further articles of outfitting, such as rubber blankets, ponchos, etc.; nor until such time as the troops are called into actual service. Other articles: axes, saws, spades, and camp equipment generally, will be hereafter considered."

A COMMISSARY AND A QUARTERMAS-TER.—The commissary department contracts for all subsistence stores for the army, such as fresh and salt meat, flour, &c.

The quartermaster department provides the quarters and transportation of the army, storage and transportation for all army supplies, army clothing, camp and garrison equipment, cavalry and artillery horses, fuel, forage, straw and stationery. Certain incidental expenses of the army are paid through this department.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

The Traitors in Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, June 2d.
Marshal Bonafant, of Baltimore, arrived here this morning to consult Gen. Scott and Secretary Cameron. He wishes to obtain permission to make arrests on his own responsibility, without a warrant, as other people will sue him for damages. Gen. Cadwallader turns the matter over to him, declining to make arrests or search for arms.

Marshal Bonafant says that the commissioners appointed by United States district court are reluctant to grant a warrant, and will not, unless the application is backed by strong affidavits, however great the presumption. A warrant is refused, unless the facts are proved.

The Marshal does his best to stop the exportation of arms, but has not a sufficient force, and cannot depend on the police. He says that forty tons of gunpowder were carted away from Baltimore some days ago, through Montgomery county, to Harper's Ferry; that the rebel allies have 6,000 or 8,000 stand of arms stowed away in private houses of the city; that 3,000 stand more are buried in the eighth ward.

Every man has his gun; arms are now making and nightly going out of the city in chests, being unstocked for the convenience of packing. Disunionists from Harper's Ferry are constantly going and coming out of and into the city. Forty arrived yesterday. Mr. Bonafant thinks Gen. Cadwallader mistakes the feeling of the city and is disposed to trust them too far. The Union men are in a large majority, but without arms.

He says he does not wish to cast an unjust imputation upon the citizens of Baltimore, but his observations and experience there constrain him to say that should the war be long, the rebels in a single battle, the scenes which will follow in Baltimore will test the truth of his assertions. He says that the secessionists are only waiting an opportunity to hang all who have proved themselves loyal to the Union, and that they are now aiding the insurrectionists whenever, wherever, and in whatever manner they can.

THE TROOPS AT THE SEAT OF WAR.—As far as can be ascertained by the recent dispatches, the following table will show the location of the various regiments stationed around the boundaries and in Virginia, and the seats of war, and the estimated number of men under each principal commander. The whole of these volunteer regiments have been well drilled in the United States military tactics while encamped. The list is compiled exclusive of the various camps, barracks and other locations situated in all the northern, eastern and western states, and also exclusive of the large bodies designated Home Guards:

Location. Commander. Est. No. Men.
So. side Potomac, &c., Brig. Gen. J. E. McDonald, 25,000
Fort Monroe, &c., Maj. Gen. D. F. Butler, 2,000
Porter, West, &c., Brig. Gen. W. H. Kellogg, 5,000
So. & W. Va., &c., Brig. Gen. B. R. Johnson, 5,000
Cairo, &c., Brig. Gen. B. R. Johnson, 5,000
Baltimore, &c., Brig. Gen. G. Cadwallader, 5,000
Philadelphia, &c., Maj. Gen. N. Patterson, 5,000
Total, 100,000

In addition to the above forces there are mustered into service and drilling at various camps and barracks not less than 75,000 effective men, ready to march at an hour's notice, making a total land force at this time of 175,000 men. This embraces the 18,000 men of the regular army. Chicago Tribune.

RESPECT FOR THE DEPARTED.—For two days (says the Chicago Times) the remains of Judge Douglas have been lying in state at Bryan Hall. On yesterday there was a constant stream, two deep, from morning till night, passing into Bryan Hall. It is estimated that 80,000 persons have sought this opportunity of taking a last look at the form of him who deserved to be, and was so well loved by the citizens of Illinois.

THEATRON PROTAGONISTS.—An order signed by Gen. Prentiss for 300,000 rifle bullets reached Chicago from Cairo yesterday, and is now being filled there. We really hope (says the Tribune) these bullets are to be sent to Memphis and that a sufficient number of Illinois boys will be sent to see them safely through.

The French government contemplates a more liberal press law.

WASHINGTON, June 5.
Commercial special.—It is understood that Gen. Scott disapproves of the landing of forces at Aquia Creek. He regards the point unimportant at present.
Post's special.—All dispatches announcing that hostilities would soon occur at Manassas Junction or Aquia Creek, or reports of an advance of rebels from Harper's Ferry, are incorrect.
No movement has been ordered; nor likely to take place soon.

A band of telegraph operators has been ordered to accompany the federal forces. Offices have been opened in every direction back of Arlington Heights, so that troops can be instantly concentrated at any point.
Several members of the Maryland legislature recently visited the rebels at Harper's Ferry and Richmond, doubtless to confer with confederates.
There is a decided secession feeling still lingering in Maryland, and needs watching.

New York, June 5.
The Secretary of State has ordered several of the prize vessels released.
Hawkins' regiment of zouaves has sailed from Fort Monroe.
Advices from Fort Monroe say Gen. Huger has 10,000 men at Norfolk, and 10,000 more at Portsmouth and along the shores of the river.

It is deemed inexpedient to make any demonstration towards Portsmouth or Gosport at present.
The report that Gen. Butler contemplated an advance on Portsmouth is without foundation.
Eight tons of gunpowder are said to have been taken from the magazine of the Merrimack, perfectly dry.
The Merrimack and Germantown will be in sea-going order, it is said, in about two weeks.

Six Dahlgren bronze 12-pounders have been fished up by the rebels near the navy yard.
BALTIMORE, June 5.
A steamer from Old Point Comfort reports all quiet there.
The barque Gen. Green of Charleston, for Baltimore, owned by a merchant of Charleston, with a cargo of sugar and molasses, has been captured by the Quaker City.

The U. S. Marshal took possession of the gun factory of Messrs. Mervill & Thomas of this city to-day, and secured all the reloading muskets in the establishment.
Intimation was given that ample employment would soon be given the establishment in the manufacture of arms for the government.
A committee of citizens, returned from Washington, have received the assurance from the government that Baltimore shall have a share in building the gun-boats and furnishing supplies to the government, also that government will soon have constructed and kept open a free and unobstructed route for travel and trade the entire line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, now effectively obstructed by the rebels at Harper's Ferry.

St. Louis, June 4.
In McDonald's case returns to the habeas corpus were made by Col's Bornstein and Brown, substantially the same as those of Gen. Lyon. Attachment against Capt. Lyon was applied for by petitioner's counsel, which Judge Treat declined issuing on the ground of insufficient proof showing such steps might be taken. Here the case rests for the present.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.
Last night Washington Ladway was stabbed by Samuel Landus, a secessionist from Panhandle, Virginia. The wounds are supposed to be fatal. Landus was lodged in jail, and guarded all night by a large police force to restrain the people.

CINCINNATI, June 5.
The engagement at Phillippi took place at 5 o'clock Monday morning. The plan was well laid for surprise, but the impetuosity of our troops gave the rebels warning, and they fled in haste, leaving in their baggage, 40 horses, 4 wagons filled with provisions, and 500 muskets.

Col. Kelly in charging in advance of his men, was shot with a revolver by a rebel who had charge of a provision wagon.—The secessionists numbered 1500, well armed and equipped.

WASHINGTON, June 5.
The belief extensively prevailed that a new levy is to be called for by the war department, and various offers have therefore been made of regiments additional to those already accepted, but it is certainly ascertained that no such levy is now contemplated.

Minister Corwin passed through Jalapa on the 4th of May, on his way to the City of Mexico, having had a pleasant and important interview at the latter city with the Mexican minister to France, who recently arrived from New York en route for Europe.

Mr. Nicolay, private secretary of the President, left this afternoon for Springfield, Illinois.

Written arguments have been submitted on the McCormick patent extension case, but the commissioners will not finally decide it for several weeks.
Current reports and the newspapers have sent a fleet, with troops, but this is news to the navy department.
John H. Sanderson, an ex-chief clerk of the war department, has recently been appointed colonel in the army, and will be second in command to Col. Anderson.

The Star says: Certain information from Leesburg has been received that Beauregard was positively at the Junction. Also that an aggregate of 20,000 rebels were at Manassas, Centerville, Fairfax Station and Fairfax Court House.

The people at Waterford, London county, Virginia, were ordered on Sunday last by officers to be at Harper's Ferry next Monday with their teams and wagons, to move materials of troops there. It is believed that 2,000 rebels will move up the Potomac to opposite Williamsport. They are known to be without means of army transportation.

Out in the country our notions of duration as well as space are more liberal. Why, we have chicken time, cow time, cucumber time, blackberry time, and Albany Times, besides the old Scriptural 'time, times and half a time,' and fly time."

A Hasty Retreat.—Our readers will remember a notice of the passage of 700

Mormons through Chicago ten days or so ago on their way to the Salt Lake paradise.

While passing through Missouri they came to a place where a gang of secession troops were stationed. A report had previously gained circulation that a body of U. S. troops were approaching, and when the loaded train of religious devotees came in sight, the secessionists made a break for some woods near by, the commanding officer being in such a hurry to get out of the way of his supposed pursuers that he could not wait to untie his horse, but summarily ordered the latter with which he was fastened.

This incident was witnessed by Mr. Wendel Fiedler, one of the oldest and most reputable citizens of the town of Centre in this county, who has since returned to his home and reports the circumstance.

GOING BACK AFTER HIS CLOTHES.—The Madison Patriot learns that Joseph Wilkes and W. W. Dird, late printers of that city, enlisted in the 1st regiment, at Milwaukee, a day or two ago. Mr. Wilkes had just returned from Memphis, and as he left a good suit or two of clothes in a hurried departure, he thought the quickest and best way of recovering them would be to march to Memphis as a soldier in the 1st regiment.

ARMY BLANKET.—W. E. Tallman, at the drug store of Tallman & Collins, has a sample of the India rubber blanket used in the U. S. army. Every volunteer liable to be encamped on the ground, ought to possess one.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO., No. 3.—This company will meet for practice on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Let every member be on hand. By order of Foreman, J. T. WILCOX, Sec. D. C. WARD.

SHARP SHOOTING SCOTCHMEN.—A Philadelphia letter says:

"There is a rifle company of Scotchmen here, most of whom saw the hardest service in the Crimean campaign. They were in the battle of Alma, and went up steadily to the attack in the face of a tremendous cannonade. There is another company of Scots at Pittsburgh, who will unite with these veterans to form part of Col. Korpor's Rifle Regiment. These men are drilling for hours at a time daily, and as sharp shooters will be a terror to the rebels."

MOVEMENTS OF SOUTHERN TROOPS.

We will not pretend, says the Winchester Republican of Friday, to give any estimate of the number of troops that daily arrive here. We will only say we believe there is no hour in the day and scarcely one in the night, that the enthusiastic shouts of our people may not be heard giving a cordial welcome to these brave and noble soldiers who have left their distant homes to defend our frontier.

President Davis will be in Harper's Ferry on a day or so, for the purpose of inspecting the troops, fortifications, &c. From there he will proceed to Richmond, where he will establish his headquarters.

The Lynchburg Virginian says that large bodies of troops from the south are daily passing through that city; and it expresses the opinion that there are not less than sixty thousand men, armed, equipped, and in the full between Harper's Ferry and Norfolk.

Col. T. T. Fauntleroy, who recently resigned a position in the army of the United States, has been appointed a brigadier general in the regular army of Virginia.

EMBARGO ON MEN.—Whilst the Tennessee disunionists are fiercely driving a portion of the Union men out of their state, they lay a rigid embargo upon others, not even permitting them to leave the state.

This seems very extraordinary, but it is indisputable. Numerous persons in middle and west Tennessee, who have been anxious to get away, have been prevented by actual violence from leaving. The reader may remember that the Brownsville notice to the Rev. Edward Cooper and others, copied into our paper three or four days ago, gave permission to those addressed—that is, to all citizens of northern or foreign birth—to leave the state at any time before the third day of June, but warned them that they would not be allowed to leave after that date. After the third of June they would be kept within the state limits, so guarded as to be unable to escape, and compelled to participate in the action of the disunionists, whatever it might be.—Louisville Journal.

SHOT FOR USING SECESSION LANGUAGE.—A baker, named John Swain, living in the eighth ward of the city of New York, was shot in a basement saloon at 199 Prince street, on Friday evening of last week. One Henry Merritt, a young sign painter, was the man who killed him.

Swain is said to have used the following language, which exceedingly exasperated Merritt and led to the fatal result above noted.

"Any man who was not a southerner and would not side with those south in hauling down the stars and stripes in defence of what he claimed to be their rights, was a d—d coward, and was only fit to be classed with such arbitrary abolitionists as Abe Lincoln."

Merritt escaped at first and concealed himself, but afterwards surrendered voluntarily to the officers, and is now in custody.

MADISON WHISKY.—Speaking of some of the troubles of camp life, the Camp Randall correspondent of the La Crosse Democrat says:

"Then again, that slippery old cuss, whisky, comes peering in. Madison whisky is singular stuff. Its component parts are strychnine, tobacco juice, old boots, old iron, to make it strong, and a little sugar of lead to make it palatable. Its effect is singular, rapid and explicit. First, the man who has been imbibing it swears he is not tight, then swears he will lick anybody who says he is—then swears he will lick anybody who says he is tight, and his fists fly about his head, while his voice roars very much like that of a mad bull."

SECRECY IN MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—Gen. Prentiss has issued the following order to the officers of his brigade:

"Private letters or reports relative to military operations, being of great mischief and constant abuse, are by the army regulations strictly forbidden. Therefore, no officer will be allowed to make such publication without special permission; nor must any such officer place such writing beyond his control so that it finds its way to the press within one month after the termination of the campaign to which it relates."

B. M. PRENTISS, May 21, 1861. Brigadier General.

This order is in accordance with the regulation issued by the war department, and is now strictly observed by the officers of all the regiments in the federal service.
